

SUV Collides With Bicyclist in Panama City

A man was injured after his bicycle collided with an SUV in Bay County, authorities said.

Around 6:40 p.m. on Tuesday, Panama City Police responded to the accident. It happened on Highway 77, in front of the Healthplex fitness center, near the intersection at Baldwin Road. Police say the vehicle was headed north on Highway 77, when it collided with the bicyclist.

Panama City Police said they are still investigating what direction the biker was headed in when he was hit.

The man was sent to the hospital, where authorities say he's listed in critical but stable condition.
