PANAMA CITY — The LEAD Coalition of Bay County will hold a forum Thursday to provide an opportunity for concerned citizens in our community to gather with the goal of working together to stop all violence, the Bay County Sheriff's Office announced.

Voices Against Violence: Finding Common Ground in Bay County will be the first in a series of community conversations. The forum will be held from 6 to 7:30 Thursday evening at the Bay County Governmental Center, 840 W. 11th Street in Panama City.

The forum is open to the public.
